Description of Federal Grant

The Employment Services funding streams are intended to support the self-sufficiency of Ukrainian Humanitarian Parolees (UHP) living in Alaska. These services are bound by the refugee social services activities listed in CFR 45 Part 400.154 and 400.155 covering employability and other services. AUSAA funding is designated to support eligible individuals as delineated within ORR-PL 22-13.

Purpose and Scope

Employment is essential to the self-sufficiency of new arrivals. Initial employment services are focused on getting individuals employed as soon as possible. Successful employment services programs should be connected to multiple employment pathways and attempt to connect client skills, experiences, English level, and background with the variety of open jobs in the market. Employment services emphasizes the importance of not only getting employed, but also retaining that employment for at least 90 days. As possible, employment services should assist arrivals with job upgrades and job advancements.

To accomplish these goals, applicants must provide services in accordance with 45 CFR Part 400 and are required to ensure the following in services:

- 1. All clients should complete an Individualized Employment Plan which documents at a minimum their previous work experience, education, English language skills, and documents barriers to employment.
- 2. Job development which could include and is not limited to:
 - a. Individualized job coaching
 - b. Assistance with development of resumes and cover letters
 - c. Assistance completing applications
 - d. Interview assistance
 - e. On boarding and hiring paperwork
- 3. Development of relationships with many different employers in multiple sectors to offer a variety of job opportunities for arrivals.
- 4. Collaboration with case management services also serving the client.
- 5. Offering in person Job Readiness classes

- 6. Document services provided via Apricot case note system and maintain client hard files of required paperwork. Services include but are not limited to case notes, class notes, job placements, and job application tracking.
- 7. Complete bi-annual reporting.

The above-mentioned examples are not exhaustive.

Funding Restrictions

The administration of this program is based on:

- Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952, as amended (PL.L. 82-414) http://www.uscis.gov/iframe/ilink/docView/SLB/HTML/SLB/act.html;
- Code of Federal Regulations 45 CFR 400: Refugee Resettlement Program Part 400: Information specific to Refugee Support Services can be found in Subpart I. Information regarding eligible refugee participants is found in Subpart D.
- 45 CFR Part 75: The US Department for Health and Human Services is implementing the language in 2 CFR 200 in these codified regulations found here:
- a) Administrative requirements: Subparts B through D of this part set forth the uniform administrative requirements for grant and cooperative agreements, including the requirements for HHS awarding agency management of Federal grant programs before the Federal award has been made, and the requirements HHS awarding agencies may impose on non-Federal entities in the Federal award.
- b) Cost principles: Subpart E of this part establishes principles for determining the allowable costs incurred by non-Federal entities under Federal awards. The principles are for the purpose of cost determination and are not intended to identify the circumstances or dictate the extent of Federal Government participation in the financing of a particular program or project. The principles are designed to provide that Federal awards bear their fair share of cost recognized under these principles except where restricted or prohibited by statute.
- c) Single audit requirements and audit follow-up: Subpart F of this part is issued pursuant to the Single Audit Act Amendments of 1996, (31 U.S.C. 7501-7507). It sets forth standards for obtaining consistency and uniformity among Federal agencies for the audit of non-Federal entities expending Federal awards. These provisions also provide the policies and procedures for HHS awarding agencies and pass-through entities when using the results of these audits.
